2024 Executive Call for Participation Submission Guide

Organizers, before you submit, please review the following.

Important Dates

Executive Call for Participation will open Thursday, February 8 and close Friday, March 15, 11:59pm ET*. The accept/decline notifications will be sent the week of April 8*.

Session Type

The session types available for the 2024 Executive Call for Participation are:

1. Oral Presentation Session – includes 4-6 presenters and must list a session title and abstract as well as the names of each presenter, their individual presentation title, and abstract. In order to complete your oral presentation submission, you must upload all individual presentation titles and abstracts.
   - The only modality for this session is in-person.
2. Roundtable/Town Hall Session – which includes 4-7 presenters and only a session title and abstract, no individual talk titles or abstracts.
   - The modality options for this session are in-person or virtual live.

*Once you select your submission type and modality, you will not be able to change the type or the modality. There is limited space on the virtual and in-person program. All participants must be able to participate based on the modality and submission type. Hybrid/blended sessions (some participants in person and some virtual) will not be accommodated.

Session Roles

Organizer – each session type will have an organizer. The organizer is responsible for the following:

- Create and submit the session proposal through the submission portal.
- Communicate registration and membership requirements to all session participants.
- Confirm all speaker tasks are completed by each session participant by the deadline.
• Leading up to the Annual Meeting, communicate any plans to meet at the session room to all session participants.

*New for 2024! To recognize the collaborative work that takes place in creating and developing sessions throughout the submission process as well as presenting at the Annual Meeting, we now can have the ability to assign a maximum of two organizers per group submissions.

Chair – Only oral presentation sessions will have a chair. The chair is responsible for the following;

• Supervise the session
• Introduce each paper, author, and discussant to the audience
• Manage time for presentation.

Discussant – The discussant role responsibilities for each session type are:

• Oral Presentation Session – 1 to 2 discussants are assigned to the session.
  o Review all the paper abstracts within the submission prior to the annual meeting.
  o During the session, highlight and integrate contributions of the various presenters’ abstracts.
  o Use expertise to provide general commentary on individual papers within the session, how they relate to each other, and how they help to advance the topic.
  o Plan on discussing the session for 10-15 minutes, depending on available time.

• Roundtable/Town Hall – 1 discussant is assigned to a roundtable.
  o Serve as a moderator.
  o Introduce the panel to the audience.
  o Use expertise to guide the direction of the discussion between presenters and audience members.
  o Lead the question-and-answer portion of the session.

Presenters – oral presentation sessions and roundtable/town hall sessions will have 4-6 presenters. The presenter’s role in each session type are;

• Oral Presentation Session
  o Leading up to the meeting, complete all tasks assigned in the Speaker Resource Center.
  o Communicate any changes to the session organizer.
  o Provide a copy of your paper to the session discussant.
  o Become a member of AAA, if you aren’t one already.
  o Register for the meeting.
  o At the meeting present findings through slide presentation.

• Roundtable/Town Hall
  o Leading up to the meeting, complete all tasks assigned in the Speaker Resource Center.
  o Communicate any changes to the session organizer.
  o Work with other roundtable presenters to share ideas on a single topic.
  o Provide a brief opening statement.

Participant Profiles
All participants on the submission must have a profile created on AAA’s Community Hub website. Please confirm that all session participants have an AAA profile. If they do not have a profile, they will need to access AAA’s Community Hub and click on “Don’t have an account?” to create a profile. When creating a profile, please use an account that you will have continued access to. Creating a profile in the AAA system allows you to add the colleague to your submission. After searching for your colleague, please make sure you are selecting the correct person.
